(3) Transfer member temporary duty (TEM DU) to NAMALA, unit identification code (UIC) 47353.

c. NAMALA Responsibilities. NAMALA will maintain original service/health records of parolee/supervised releasee.

d. Procedures when Parole or Supervised Release is Suspended. In cases where parole or supervised release is suspended by the NC&PB, the following procedures shall be accomplished:

(1) NC&PB - Directs Return of Violator. The NC&PB sends NAMALA a letter directing return of parole/supervised release violator.

(2) NAMALA -

(a) Directs Parolee/Supervised Releasee to Report. NAMALA shall direct the parolee/supervised releasee to report to the brig from which released or other such confinement facility as directed by Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM), Corrections and Programs Office (PERS-00D1).

(b) Declares Desertion. If the parolee/supervised releasee cannot be located or fails to report to the specified brig, NAMALA shall declare the individual a deserter by completing a DD 553 (5-04) (PDF-Ext), Deserter/Absentee Wanted by the Armed Forces, and forwarding it to the Navy Absentee Collection and Information Center (NACIC) per MILPERSMAN 1600-060.

(3) NACIC -

(a) Changes ACC. NACIC shall then change the parolee/supervised releasee's ACC to 109 and shall not join the parolee to the deserter UIC 41104 as he/she is to remain assigned to NAMALA's UIC 47353.

(b) Upon Apprehension. Upon apprehension, NACIC shall escort the individual to the designated place of confinement and change the member's ACC to 391 per MILPERSMAN article 1320-300.

(4) NAMALA -

(a) Assigns Brig. Upon completion of the revocation proceedings and where confinement is determined to be continued, NAMALA shall direct the prisoner to a designated brig.

(b) Transfers Documents. Per reference (a), original personnel documents (service/health records) and any allied documents of parolee's/supervised releasee's re-confined in the brig following revocation of parole/supervised release shall be transferred from NAMALA to the designated confinement facility.

(5) Confinement Facility

(a) Reconfinement Documents. The confinement facility maintains original personnel documents (service/health records) and any allied documents of parolees/supervised releasees re-confined (e.g., additional revised victim/witness notification documents).

(b) Victim/Witness Notification. The confinement facility shall make appropriate victim/witness notifications regarding revocation of parole and reconfinement.

2. Procedures (Member Discharged). When a prisoner is granted parole or supervised release by the NC&PB and the member has been discharged (or discharged while on parole/supervised release), the following responsibilities apply:

a. Brig Officer Responsibilities

(a) Per reference (a), the brig officer shall release the offender on the effective date of parole/supervised release when all prerelease conditions have been completed, e.g., explanation of conditions of parole/supervised release to the offender; appropriate photographs taken; an approved sample taken for DNA analysis if the offender was convicted of at least one QMO; sex offender registration if applicable; victim/witness notification if applicable, etc.; and upon receipt of DD 2716-1 (PDF-Ext).

(b) Prisoner records and copies of service/health records of parolees/supervised releasees shall be maintained by the brig. Original service/health records of parolee/supervised releasee shall be forwarded to and be maintained by NAMALA.

b. NAMALA Responsibilities. NAMALA shall maintain original service/health records of parolee/supervised releasee.

c. Procedures when Parole is Revoked or Suspended. In cases where parole or supervised release is suspended by the NC&PB, the following procedures shall be accomplished:
